

EQUINE COURSE

By Distance or On-line

Are you interested in working with horses as a career?
Do you own a horse or work with horses?

The Correspondence School, in association with Telford Polytech or Equine eLearning Ltd, is able to offer you the opportunity to study for unit standards towards the National Certificate in Equine Level 2.

...You can complete the theory in your own home at your own pace (see attached list of unit standards available)

Some of the unit standards offered by Equine eLearning require practical assessments by approved assessors. You will be given assistance to link up with these assessors.

The Correspondence School will pay the course fees

Why should I do this course?

- You are interested in horses and think you might like a career working with them
- The unit standards are part of the National Certificate in Equine and will give you a head start if you decide to continue with equine work as a career
- The unit standards will also go towards your school Record of Learning
- It won't cost you anything
- A full year's work on this course can, after discussion with your form teacher replace one of your other subjects, if you are taking four or more subjects.
